MAXIMUM CLASSICS
Knowledge Organiser

Unit 3

Key vocabulary

curare to look after, to take care of

irate angrily

male badly

optime very well, excellently dare to give

facile easily

laete happily

fortiter bravely

bene well
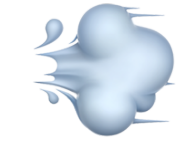

celeriter quickly

Key language ideas and grammar

1 Adverbs describe verbs and make them more interesting.

2 Latin also uses adverbs and they tend to end in –e or –ter.

Important terms

adverb

A word that describes how a verb is being done, often (but not always) ending in –ly in English malediction

A curse, from the Latin 'male' meaning 'badly' and 'dicere' meaning 'to say.'

benediction

A blessing, from the Latin 'bene' meaning 'well' and 'dicere' meaning 'to say.'