

Karl Benz

The car was first invented by Karl Benz in 1886. It was very different from the car we are familiar to today.

Bertha Benz

In 1888, Bertha Benz changed history. She packed her teenage sons into the car and drove to her mother's house. She drove 65 miles. This distance had never been attempted before.

Transport

Transport is used for work, leisure and to transport goods.

We can travel by air, sea or land, either by car, boat, aeroplane, train, bicycle or tram.

There was a time when people used horse and carriage.

People could not travel by air.

The first electric tram was used in Blackpool in 1885. They were used as a means of transport around cities.

Trams are still used in Nottingham.
